You will:

- gain hands on training in programme and event production execution through working closely with the TICA team;
- learn about working the dynamics of an emerging local arts organization;
- access to master classes and concerts delivered by a pool of international musicians specializing in contemporary chamber music.

Join us if you:

- are a full time undergraduate/ post-graduates students, or a recent graduates;
- have a good command of spoken English, Cantonese(and/or) Mandarin;
- are well-organised, detailed-oriented and eager to learn;
- are interested in developing a career in arts administration and performing arts.

You will help with the following tasks:

- to assist TICA artist-faculty, guest artists and fellows in classes, rehearsals and concert throughout TICA.
- to co-ordinate and liaise with artists and TICA fellows;
- to assist the TICA team with logistics and general admin work of TICA.

Interns are expected to contribute 12-18 hours per week during the internship period and at least 20 hours during TICA week.

A reference letter and small travel allowance will be provided upon satisfactory completion of the internship.
